2 Peter 3:2

I want you to remember and understand what the holy prophets said long ago and what our Lord and Savior commanded through your apostles.

Greetings!

Praise God for:

-August, 40 years ago this month, when we were accepted as members of Wycliffe Bible Translators. All members who reach that milestone, receive a 40 year pin to commemorate service with Wycliffe. This picture was taken in Jungle Camp in southern Mexico in February, 1978. You can see that a certain young man in our lives is going to turn 40 shortly! How can this all be? Yet we can look back and remember, yes, we are supposed to remember, what the Lord has done.

38 years ago, we moved to Alaska, to help put God's Word into the language of the northern people. Praise God, they have His Word! 7 years ago, the Lord joined us to with the translation work among a related group. He is at work here.

We have, like everyone else, gone through times of feast and famine, joy and sorrow, but ALWAYS we have seen God at work. How grateful we are to the team that He has put together to carry out this call. Many of our team are now with Him, and some we have not yet met, but we thank our Lord for all and marvel at what He has done and has yet to do.

Please pray for:

-our team and for those He is calling to be part. We in Wycliffe are called as faith missionaries, we depend upon the support of God's people and yes, the need is very real right now so that we can continue to work uninterrupted on the translation work here.

- these northern people. Just this morning, we've received word of a murder and suicide in a terribly troubled village and the nearby community. U, from there, is on vacation, but she messaged us, broken hearted of this newest tragedy. I reminded her that her call to Bible translation for her people, is a huge part of the answer to the despair that causes people to even consider such things. The written Word can lead them to Jesus, the living Word, the Prince of peace.

We pray for you and that you sense His peace in these increasingly troubled times. God bless you, and thank you for being part of our team.

In His Love,

Meggie and Pierre
