You have been taught the holy Scriptures from childhood, and they have given you the wisdom to receive the salvation that comes by trusting in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:15

Greetings!

Praise God for:

-our grandson Pete, who recently earned the Timothy Award in AWANA. We are so proud of him, of the commitment he made to do his best, and that he has indeed, accomplished this goal.

-dear friends as we prepare to return to them. We have received messages and phone calls from them that let us know they are eagerly awaiting our arrival. J plans to build a “man cave” this summer. He loves having Pierre join in these projects. P asked for help responding to a discussion she overheard about what Jesus’ last name was. It got quite interesting. We gave her some helpful information and she looked forward to sharing those insights.

Please pray for:

-U, who has turned in her letter of intention to retire, effective June 30. One of her sons struggles with mental illness and converted to islam in prison. Last week he had a melt down which caused a lot of concern. U has asked prayer for him and the situation. An answer to prayer, he did calm down and apologize, but the situation is very unstable. She asks for prayer.

-us as we close down the house, pack up our Dakota and hit the highway. Pierre has made much progress on translation this winter. U plans to start translation full time beginning in July, J continues on with his portions.

-it is always difficult to leave family, especially our precious grandchildren. We pray for them, for the Lord’s loving watch and care over them.

-the challenges that await us. The need is huge and we are certainly incapable of handling the task, but He is able and He is our All. Thank you for standing in the gap for us, for praying, giving and caring. We thank the Lord for you and ask that He keep His loving arms around you, blessing and guiding you and using you for His glory.

In His Love,

Meggie and Pierre
