Now all of us can come to the Father
through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done
for us.
Ephesians 2:18

Greetings!

Praise God for:

-seasons: May, in like a lion out like a ??? Time will tell the answer to that one, but May first was a white out here. Typical of this time of year, though, the new snow didn't make much of a difference, or stay. Yesterday "break-up" hit with full force and once again, we consider using a kayak or canoe on our road. Fortunately, ATV's work just fine.

-Pierre, who has made much progress in transcribing oral translation into written form. This is quite a daunting task, but he is getting very adept at it. I am about 3 chapters behind him in the book of Acts, keying into the computer what he has put down on paper. With my new keyboard, my task is not nearly as daunting.

Please pray for:

-us as we are once again packing, sorting, and cleaning -our usual activity before we head out on our travels.

-plans to spend a couple of days with team members who live on our route Please pray that we make good progress and that the checking of translated portions can be done quickly and efficiently. This has been a real hurdle in our progress, and it is very important we can get over this hurdle. Pray also for the others who have committed to helping with the checking process.

-U, as she continues to work on first draft translation, carry on with her counseling job, and deals with the failing health of her son, T. Pray for their whole family, please, and for God's perfect will to be done in this situation.

-housing needs of co-laborers. So fit for and gifted in ministry in the north country, they need a home. Thank you for joining us in prayer.

-in a few days, we say our "see you later's" to our dear family and friends here,. Please hold these dear ones in prayer with us, and us as we travel, and continue on serving where we have been sent. Pray for protection, for provision, for us to follow God's directions and walk close to Him in all ways.

God bless you and keep you. Thank you for partnering with us in prayer, in the task of Bible translation for these people of the north.

In His Love,
Meggie and Pierre
