“The Joy of The LORD Is Your Strength” (Nehemiah. 8:10)

“Serve the Lord with Gladness; Come into His Presence with Singing” (Psalms 100:2)

Dear Friends in Christ,

You've heard it said that the battle is in our minds, not our surroundings. It means that victory or defeat in a believer's life depends on one's state of mind. As cross-cultural missionaries, we face an unimaginable task, so it's imperative that we not allow the enemy into our thought life by nursing a defeatist attitude. It's estimated that one-in-twenty career missionaries leave the field every year to return home in defeat. That's 5.1% of the total missionary work force each year! Of those who leave, a huge 71% do so for preventable reasons. Cited from: Too Valuable to Lose: Exploring the Causes and Cures of Missionary Attrition. A sizable reason for leaving the ministry and returning home are feelings of personal defeat, discouragement, or disillusionment over a variety of solvable issues. Many over language and culture skills, i.e., communication difficulties or lack of training.

If I said I was never tempted to quit when crushing disappointments overwhelmed me, I'd be lying. We all face them, but what do we do with them? I write to one missionary serving in Thailand's spiritually parched Isan region regularly, encouraging him not to throw in the towel, or allow Satan parking space in his mind. God's power and presence are just as real in Thailand as at home, no matter what the situation. In most cases, we are the only ones with the saving truth of the Gospel in the areas where we serve. Is it any wonder why Satan wants us gone? It's a known fact that the more God blesses our work, the harder the enemy fights to hinder and destroy. We are involved in spiritual warfare over men's souls. If we give in or “tap out,” Satan wins. It's like a soldier going AWOL. If, as Christians, we knowingly disobey explicit instructions in God's Word to occupy with Christ's business until His return, we are AWOL. (Luke 19:12-13) We all need to have some integral part in taking the Gospel to those still sitting in abject spiritual darkness at the uttermost ends of the earth. (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15; Acts 1:8; Romans 10:14-15; 2 Corinthians 10:16)

Jesus said, “Do not let your hearts be troubled; Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” (John 14:1&27) The unstoppable Apostle Paul tells us, “Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and the power of his might. Above all else, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked [one].” (Ephesians 6:10&16) What are these stinging darts Satan targets us with? Fear, doubt, and discouragement, to name a few—all aimed at us center-mass, designed to take us out. Abiding Faith and Praise towards God renders these attacks powerless.

Consider Nehemiah. He faced a seemingly impossible task; that of rebuilding the walls around the city of Jerusalem, the remnants of which lay in disrepair from when they were captured and led into exile. Before they set about to rebuild the wall, Nehemiah encouraged the people, saying: “This day is sacred to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.” On the one hand, Nehemiah had an enormous task to accomplish, with enemies to fend off on the other. He also had naysayers and detractors who opposed him from the start – as we all do when we step out to accomplish something. Nehemiah and the people worked tirelessly to rebuild the walls while they remained vigilant against the actions of their enemies sworn to defeat them—trowel in one hand and sword in the other, led by the commandments in God's Holy Word; the Law of Moses. By God's Grace, they accomplished the job that they set about to do.

Consider also King Jehoshaphat, who learned that great armies were coming to destroy Judah. (2 Chronicles 20) In fear, he inquired of the Lord and proclaimed a fast. All Judah gathered to seek the Lord as Jehoshaphat stood in their midst, praising God for His greatness, and crying out for His protection. He pled their situation to the Lord, saying how helpless they were before such a mighty enemy; not knowing what to do except look to Him. Then, the Spirit of God came upon their prophets, who proclaimed: “Do not be afraid or dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's. Tomorrow, go down against them. You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, but stand still and see the salvation of the Lord.” The following morning, Jehoshaphat appointed singers who went before their army, rejoicing and singing praises to the Lord for His mercy. The moment they began praising God, He caused their enemies to turn on each other. All that was left to do was to gather up the spoils. The Judahites found such an abundance of valuables and jewelry it took them three days to gather it all.

They gained victory over their dire circumstances by praising the Lord for His greatness, not by entertaining negative thoughts or depending on themselves. Victory is found in Christ alone, Romans 8:37; “In all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.”

In closing, Cheryl and I want to thank you for your prayers and partnership. Please pray for my co-worker Bao-Ter's upcoming court appearance in Bangkok on Sept 8. Pray that he will be cleared of all civil charges as he was of any criminal charges. He helped a friend in good faith by co-signing a check that ended up having insufficient funds due to a planning glitch. There is no hinderance that Satan won't attempt to delay God's message from going forth. (2 Corinthians 2:11)
